Phil has established a reputation for his musical talent. He is a player par excellence, plus being a perceptive teacher to spot budding talent and inspire musical acumen.

The jazz idiom gives inspiration to Phil's organising and conducting skills, sometimes adding choirs or soloists to band performances. Thus, Cooma has and is hosting annual regional musical workshops because of him.

Driven by his musical passion, Phil has found a harmony at home, at work, and in the community to make his life rich. Hear his story.
