Many linkages shape Fr John's outlook: India-Syrian Eastern Catholic upbringing, a St Vincent de Paul congregation in teenage, priesthood 28y ago, and teaching theology-philosophy for 17y in Bangalore, one of the cities in South India.

For the last 18mths of a 22mth tour of duty in Narooma and on Monaro, he has been able to expand into pastoral work. This he has found to be very rewarding.

Here is an unique opportunity to engage with one from Kerala State. The State is notable since it is historically linked to the mission of Thomas, one of the 12 Apostles. He was the one who said he needed proof of the resurrected body of Jesus.
