In a short space of time Matt has begun to make a big impression on the budding musical talents of Primary and High School students on Monaro through guitar tuition.

Moving to Cooma from an educational role in Victoria, and coming with his new bride only about 12mths ago, Matt settled quickly into a vacancy as chaplain at the local Public Schools but is working beyond that now.

With a CD of his own compositions and lyrics, Matt is especially gifted in inspiring love and peace through music. Capture some of his story and appreciate his passion that inspires our children.
