Chris has an amazing capacity for applying himself to many and varied careers. How does he do it? This is what was forecast by educators to be needed for school leavers 40 years ago.

Most recently Chris has been awarded Rotary's internationally recognised award, the Paul Harris Fellowship. It was awarded for Chris' initiatives for a humanitarian aid projects in Papua New Guinea since 2007, principally at Kemabolo.

In all these activities he has been supported and encouraged by his wife and two young daughters. Be inspired by Chris; hear his story and share his thoughts at the Breakfast.
