Peter moved from being Senior Master at Risdon Park High, Port Pirie in S.A. Dept. of Education in 1977 to be instrumental in establishing Christian educational facilities and curriculum resources that has an international reach. Today he travels widely, specialising in teacher and parental training.

One of the off-shoots of Peter's teaching skill passion is how he has developed and shared what is known internationally today as LEM Phonetics.

For anyone who engages with another person where they have a zest to learn English, Peter has the answer to give real help! Come and hear his story and how the vision and gifts were inspired to bear good results around the world.
