After eight years of leadership of the Anglican Church in Cooma and district, Paul is about to make a move to the Kayleen-Giralang Parish in the ACT.

As well as nurturing a young family with a working wife and three children engaged in their local schools, Paul still found time to contribute to interdenominational Scripture in Public Schools, and in children's vacation programs facilitating the use of a jumping castle.

Paul is known in the seasonal activities of cricket, playing with the Cooma Hotel team, in the admin of soccer 6-a-side, and the culling of feral pests on nearby properties.

Hear Paul's impressions and visions as he reflects on ministering in Cooma over these years. All welcome to join us for a good breakfast and for good company.
