Instead of our usual practice of having a guest speaker, today is the ideal time to share in the godly wisdom needed to be exercised by politicians and their parties in the Australian Parliament.

What comes to mind when we seek wisdom in conversation at the Cooma Combined Churches Men's Breakfast? Meeting together, across the generation gap, allows for a fair dose of some worldly wisdom to be distilled into what is said that comes from a long life. "It is no good getting older unless you get wiser" someone said.

Let the Breakfast be a congenial meal to enjoy each other's company, irrespective of one's politics. It will be an opportunity not to be missed.
