Ron has many fascinating stories to tell from being the "Sarge" at Trinity Grammar, a Day and Boarding School in Summer Hill, Sydney; altogether 40 years in schools.

While there Ron became a notable coach in swimming, rugby union, athletics as well as being the Cadet Officer. It meant also regular excursions to a Perisher Valley lodge. He took advantage then to regularly look-in on the progressive construction of the Snowy Mountains Scheme.

From early employment at Hawkesbury Agricultural College and then being a shed-hand at Michelago Station, Ron got to love Monaro. Cooma was the chosen place for retirement from Trinity school 20 years ago. Athletics training in Cooma remains as one of his community activities.

Let the Breakfast be a congenial meal to enjoy each other's company and afterwards be entertained by Ron's wonderful experiences. All welcome.
