Good leadership soon becomes obvious to every observer. Peter has for the past five years been giving innovative leadership as CEO of Genr8, an organisation to implement Federal funded chaplains in NSW Schools.

Genr8's reputation for managing about 200 teachers and chaplains is 2nd to none by reputation with the school Principals where they operate.

Peter qualified in teaching from Sydney University. The choices he took from teenage years and from an early teaching career all prepared him for the task today.

Be welcome to come and be inspired by Peter this month, as well as enjoy good company over a hearty Breakfast.
