Monaro ABILITY LINKS NSW Worker

ABILITY LINKS NSW is a new programme which aims to assist people with disability to be valued & equal members of their communities & to help build a society where people with disability enjoy inclusive lives in all spheres.

Fred (who works for Settlements Services International) has been employed to advance the aims of ABILITY LINKS in the Monaro area in partnership with UnitingCare who is responsible for the administration of the funding for this new programme. He will talk about the programme & how Church groups can assist the work in the area.
