

MONARO MEN'S BREAKFAST

St Paul's Anglican Hall, 136 Commissioner St, Cooma

Saturday 6th September 2025 at 7:30am Cost $7.00

Speaker: Sean Heslehurst

Currently I am working in the Royal Australian Navy as a Chaplain. My role is to look after the wellbeing of approximately 2,900 people spread across CANBERRA. These members are a mixture of Able Seamen to Admirals and everything in between. As you can imagine for CANBERRA though it is heavily weighted to the more senior staff of Navy. I also have responsibility for approx. 600 navy members posted to overseas positions.

I hope at our breakfast to demonstrate the absolute glory of how the basic doctrines of Faith Alone makes real and concrete sense of our everyday life.

How do I live today knowing the Glory of God in Jesus? What difference does it all make when life throws the curve balls that it inevitably throws? Am I ready to die well?

I really look forward to exploring life with you.
